

TPTA Scholarship Application

The Toledo Piano Teachers Association (TPTA) Scholarship Fund is a program that enables students, especially those with expressed financial need, to further their music study by supporting the cost of tuition or sheet music, instrument maintenance or upgrade, attending summer camps, or taking music assessments. The money for these scholarships is donated by TPTA funds, TPTA members and patrons, or members of the community. TPTA reserves authority in determination of awards.

Rules:

1. The student must be currently studying piano or organ with a current TPTA member.
2. The student must reside in the northwest Ohio, southeast Michigan areas.
3. Individual requests for scholarship awards must not exceed $150.
4. Scholarships are limited to one per studio of a current TPTA member per year.
5. Only one scholarship per family will be awarded each year.

Application Requirements:

1. Fill out the form below.
2. Submit a letter introducing yourself (a brief biography describing past performances, participation in festivals or competitions or masterclasses, level of playing, achievement, involvement in school or community organizations) and describing your proposed project, financial need, and cost.
3. Include a letter of recommendation from your teacher.

Deadline: March 1st (postmarked date)
